In the event that the coverage provided to the insured by the National Rifle Association under their ArmsCare Program is exhausted or in the event that the insured ceases to be a member of the National Rifle Association during the currency of this policy, then the coverage provided

XI. SUE AND LABOR

In the event of loss to property covered under this policy, the "Individual Insured Member", his employees, factors and assigns shall sue, labor and travel in efforts to recover, safeguard and defend the said property. Such action shall not prejudice this insurance or constitute a waiver of any rights of the "Individual Insured Member".

XII. NOTICE OF LOSS

The "Individual Insured Member" shall as soon as practicable report in writing to NRA Endorsed Insurance Program, c/o Lockton Affinity, LLC, PO Box 410679, Kansas City, MO, 64141, every loss which may become a claim under this policy and shall also file with the Underwriters or their agent within ninety (90) days from the date of discovery of loss a detailed sworn proof of loss. Such notice shall contain particulars sufficient to identify the "Individual Insured Member" and all reasonably obtainable information respecting the time, place and circumstances of the loss or damage. In the event of loss or damage caused by theft or attempt thereat, larceny, burglary, robbery, mysterious disappearance or vandalism and malicious mischief, the "Individual Insured Member" shall report such loss to the police.

Failure by the "Individual Insured Member" to report said loss or damage and to file such sworn proof of loss as hereinbefore provided (and accompanied by the police report when applicable) shall invalidate any claim under this policy for such loss or damage.

The "Individual Insured Member", as often as may be reasonably required, shall exhibit to any person designated by the Underwriters all that remains of any property insured hereunder and shall submit—and insofar as it is within his or her power cause his or her employees, members of the household and others to submit—to examinations under oath by any person named by the Underwriters and subscribe the same; and, as often as may be reasonably required, shall produce for examination all writings, books of account, bills, invoices and other vouchers, or certified copies thereof if original be lost, at such reasonable time and place as may be designated by the Underwriters or their representative, and shall permit extracts and copies thereof to be made. No such examination under oath or examination of books or documents, nor any other act of the Underwriters or any of their employees or representatives in connection with the investigation of any loss or claim hereunder, shall be deemed a waiver of any defense which the Underwriters might otherwise have with respect to any loss or claim, but all such examinations and acts shall be deemed to have been made or done without prejudice to the Underwriters' liability.

XIV. NO BENEFIT TO BAILEE

This insurance shall in no way inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of any carrier or other bailee.

XV. PAIR, SET OR PARTS

In the event of loss or damage to

- A. any article or articles which are part of a pair or set, the measure of loss of or damage to such articles shall be a reasonable and fair proportion of the total value of the pair or set, giving consideration to the importance of said article or articles, but in no event shall such loss be construed to mean total loss of the pair or set; or
- B. any part of property covered consisting, when complete for use, of several parts, the Underwriters shall only be liable for the value of the part lost or damaged.

XVI. APPRAISAL

If the "Individual Insured Member" and the Underwriters fail to agree as to the amount of loss, each shall, on the written demand of either, made within sixty (60) days after receipt of proof of loss by the Underwriters, select a competent and disinterested appraiser, and the appraisal shall be made at a reasonable time and place. The appraisers shall first select a competent and disinterested umpire, and failing for fifteen (15) days to agree upon such umpire, then on the request of the "Individual Insured Member" or the Underwriters, such umpire shall be selected by a judge of a court of record in the State in which such appraisal is pending. The appraisers shall then appraise the loss, stating separately the actual cash value at the time of loss and the amount of loss, and failing to agree shall submit their differences to the umpire. An award in writing of any two shall determine the amount of loss.

The "Individual Insured Member" and the Underwriters shall each pay his or their chosen appraiser and shall bear equally the other expenses of the appraisal and umpire. The Underwriters shall not be held to have waived any of their rights by any act relating to appraisal.

XVII. SETTLEMENT OF CLAIMS

There can be no abandonment to Underwriters of any property. However, it shall be optional with the Underwriters to take all, or any part, of the property at its actual cash value, or to repair, rebuild or replace the property destroyed or damaged with other like kind and quality within a reasonable time on giving notice of their intention so to do within sixty (60) days after the receipt of the proof of loss required.

All adjusted claims shall be paid or made good to the "Individual Insured Member" within ninety (90) days after presentation and acceptance of satisfactory proof of interest and loss at the office of the Underwriters or their agent. No loss shall be paid or made good if the "Individual Insured Member" has collected the same from other insurers and/or other parties.

XVIII. SUIT

No suit, action or proceeding for the recovery of any claim under this policy shall be sustainable in any court of law or equity unless the same be commenced within twelve (12) months after discovery by the "Individual Insured Member" of the occurrence which gives rise to the claim, provided, however, that if by the laws of the State within which this Policy is issued such limitation is invalid, then any such claims shall be void unless such action, suit or proceeding be commenced within the shortest limit of time permitted by the laws of such State.

XIX. SUBROGATION

In the event of any payment under this policy the Underwriters shall be subrogated to all the "Individual Insured Member's" rights of recovery thereof against any person or organization and the "Individual Insured Member" shall execute and deliver instruments and papers and do whatever else is necessary to secure such rights. The "Individual Insured Member" shall do nothing after loss to prejudice such rights.

XX. ASSIGNMENT OF POLICY

This policy shall be void if assigned or transferred without the written consent of Underwriters.

XXI. SERVICE OF SUIT CLAUSE

It is agreed that in the event of the failure of Underwriters hereon to pay any amount claimed to be due hereunder, the Underwriters hereon, at the request of the Insured, will submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction within the United States. Nothing in this Clause constitutes or should be understood to constitute a waiver of Underwriters' rights to commence an action in any Court of competent jurisdiction in the United States, to remove an action to a United States District Court, or to seek a transfer of a case to another court as permitted by the laws of the United States or of any State in the United States.

It is further agreed that service of process in such suit may be made as follows:

compelling arbitration or enforcing such arbitration or arbitral award, not as an alternative to such Arbitration provision for resolving disputes arising out of this contract of insurance.

XXII. CANCELLATION

The policy may be canceled by surrender to Underwriters or any of its authorized agents, or by mailing to Underwriters or any of its authorized agents, written notice stating when thereafter such cancellation shall be effective. The policy may be canceled by Underwriters by mailing to the "Individual Insured Member" at the address shown in their policy, written notice stating when, not less than ninety (90) days thereafter, but ten (10) days with respect to cancellation for nonpayment of premium, such cancellation shall be effective. Proof of mailing of notice as aforesaid shall be sufficient proof of notice. Delivery of such written notice, whether by the "Individual Insured Members" or by Underwriters, shall be equivalent to mailing.
If Underwriters cancel, earned premium shall be computed pro rata. If "Individual Insured Member" cancels, earned premium shall be computed in accordance with the customary short rate table and procedures.

Premium adjustment may be made at the time cancellation is effected or as soon as practicable thereafter. The check of Underwriters or its representatives mailed or delivered, shall be sufficient tender of any refund due the "Individual Insured Member".

XXII. OTHER INSURANCE

If other valid and collectible insurance with any other insurer is available to the Individual Insured Member covering a loss that is also covered by this policy, the insurance afforded by this policy shall be excess of such insurance. This insurance shall not be primary or contributory to any other insurance unless such condition is specifically endorsed to this policy. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to make this policy subject to the terms, conditions and limitations of any other insurance.

If other insurance is written as specific excess insurance over the limits of liability of this insurance, then this insurance shall be primary. When this insurance is excess insurance, we will have no duty to defend the insured against any suit if any other insurer has a duty to defend the insured against the suit. If no other insurer defends, we will undertake to do so, but will be entitled to the insured' rights against all other insurers.

Without limiting the foregoing and in consideration of the premium charged, this policy is also expressly excess of : (1) any directors and officers insurance policy; and (2) any homeowners insurance policy.
